- ❖ Registration Fees, Exam Fees & other fees are payable separately by the students admitted in CNCI, KPT and Non Govt. Institutions at their respective Institutions after admission.
- ❖ In case of discontinuity of studies on valid grounds by a student of any of the Affiliated Institutes, refund of course fee will be made after deduction of Rs. 3000/- provided an application is made just within a month from the date of admission.
- ❖ No refund after one month is admissible.

**Locomotor disability involving upper limb should not be considered. The Locomotor disability involving lower limb is permissible but it should be within the following guidelines:*

a) If it involves only one lower limb it should have a Minimum of 40% and should not exceed 60%

b) If it is involved both the lower limbs the total disability should not exceed 60% with a Minimum of 40%

Examination of the courses

The Examination of the respective courses will be conducted in terms of the provisions contained in this respect in the respective course curriculum/Regulations approved by the State Government.

Post Examination Training

6 months for all passed out students of Diploma courses is compulsory and the same should be completed just after passing the Final Examination.

Eligibility for appearing in any Examination

1. As per rule, Internal Assessment marks – both for Preliminary and Final – is required to be held in each subject in each Para Medical Course two months prior to holding of Regular Examination scheduled in the month of August. The distribution of marks for Internal Assessment in respect of each subject of each course would be 20% of Theory part and 10% of Oral & Practical part. The Qualifying Marks is 35% in each segment.

2. A candidate has to secure at least 75% attendance [separately in theoretical and Practical] for appearing at any of the Examinations of any course.

No relaxation, whatsoever, will be permissible to this rule under any ground including indisposition etc.

Fees payable by a student for appearing at the Examination with shortage of attendance

Any student, appearing with shortage of attendance at any Examination, will have to pay the following fees:

[a] For percentage between 70 and 74 : Rs. 500.00

[b] For percentage below 70 but more than 60 : Rs. 1000.00

No candidate will be allowed to make good of his/her shortfall in attendance below 60% without being re-admitted in the course in one of the subsequent sessions. However, the Faculty reserves the right of admission of any such discontinued students in the subsequent academic session/s due to nonavailability of seat.

Cancellation of admission

The State Medical Faculty shall have the right of cancellation of admission and/or studentship of any student during the session if he/she is found guilty of any of the following charges:

- a] Suppression of information
- b] Supply of false information
- c] General misconduct unbecoming of a student
- d] Adoption of unfair means at the examination and
- e] General indiscipline.

General guideline concerning the courses

[i] The State Medical Faculty of West Bengal, with the prior approval of the State Government, shall reserve the right to alter / modify / amend any or all the rules concerning conduction of the above courses in any Institution.

[ii] No Hostel facilities will be available

[iii] Annexure I - Proforma of authorisation letter

Change in Course or in Institution after admission is not allowed :

Once a candidate is admitted through counseling to a course in an Institute, change either in course, or in Institution is not allowed on any grounds at any subsequent stage.

Transfer of Training is not allowed :

Each student is required to undergo Post-exam compulsory practical training after passing the final examination in the very same Institution from where the student appeared at the final examination. Transfer of such practical training to any other Institute is not allowed on any grounds under any circumstances.
